

Cecil J. Toudouze

August 19, 1928 - October 21, 2016

“O’ how our hearts overflow with tears of joy at our Lord’s mercy in calling him home.”

A 4th generation Texan, he was often called the last of the old timers, by friends and family. Cecil stayed true to his upbringing, maintaining his greatest joy was home and family.

Born and raised in San Antonio, Cecil attended St. Mary’s Parochial School, St. Anthony’s Seminary, and graduated with a Bachelor of Business degree from St. Mary’s University. Commissioned First Lieutenant in 1954 he honorably served in both the U.S. Army and Army Reserves.

Following his service setting priorities: God, Family, Work. For which we will be eternally grateful.

Cecil Joseph Toudouze was born on August 19, 1928 and called home to the Lord on October 21, 2016 at the age of 88. He is preceded in death by his parents Henry Mitchell Sr. and Florence Sanders Toudouze, siblings Henry Mitchell Jr., Sister Jo Marie DP, and his son Cecil Joseph Jr. He is survived by his spouse of 63 years Margaret Tilger Toudouze, and children, Cecilia A. Toudouze, Michael A. Toudouze, Teresa M. Toudouze, Mary E. Higgins and spouse Jerry. Brother’s William S. Toudouze and wife Kathryn, Thomas P. Toudouze and wife Edith. Grandchildren Shannon, Bridgit, Joseph, Brandon, Kathryn, Rory, Connor, great grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. He will be greatly missed.

The family wishes to extend their gratitude to Isabella, Andrew, Chris, Marlene, Shawn and various staff at Mystic Park for their care.
