Cecilia was a woman of strong character and unwavering spirit. Through consistent acts of kindness, generosity, and unconditional love were always highlighted by her cleverness, hilarious humor, and care. She always faced challenges with grace and resilience. She instilled in us a sense of hard work, kindness, and compassion.

She enjoyed simple pleasures from Thomas Kinkade puzzles, cooking for her family and friends, and of course shopping. She was the queen of Walmart!

She was one of the most good-hearted adorable ladies you'll ever meet.

Her legacy lives on in each of us, in the values she taught us, and in the love, she shared with so many. We will continue to strive to live our lives in a way that would make her proud, and we will always cherish the memories of the incredible woman she was.
