A devote catholic, she attended mass every Sunday and remained a parishioner of St. Margaret Mary's for most of her life. She attended St. Phillip's College and became a Certified Nurses Aide

Her hobbies included caring for her beautiful lawn and many plants which she said she learned from her father Jose. She also had a love for soap operas, her favorite, none other than the “Young and the Restless”. But her favorite past time was music and dancing with her beloved husband; you could always find the dance floor at most family celebrations to her favorite artists, Tom Jones, Elvis, and Cornelio Reyna.
