“ My Tia Annie you are gone but never forgotten. You were called home to the heavens above by the Lord our savior Jesus Christ. Free from the illness that caused you pain. You are free of that pain and in the arms of our Guardian Angels your Dad & Mom. Please know the kids will be ok just continue to shine your light upon them. Thank you for always being the loving person you were to everyone who had the pleasure of knowing you. Rest Internal Peace.

Condolences to my cousin's Aaron & Monica and all the family and friends who love you now tomorrow and always.

*Love you forever and always,
Your Niece Frances and family.*

“ My lovely grandma i'm still in disbelief that your gone, i know you'll still be here watching over us. I'm going to miss you so much. I'm happy your at peace. I have so many memories with you but my favorites are when you were with my little family in Washington and Germany. I loved seeing you with my girls, always hugging and kissing us. You laughing with them on the couch and them play fighting and you getting after them. You being able to go to paris with us was a blessing. Thank you for always being there for me when i needed you! I love you
