“ Our deepest condolences. prayers and thoughts to the Ramirez family. We know its very hard during this expedience time for all of us to loose a loved one. There are no words that can fill the emptiness when we lose a parent but with faith god will guide us to treasure those memories our loved one left for us.

Your longtime neighbors,

Mrs. Hernandez and her family

I am so sorry for the loss of Mrs Ramirez. She was like a second mother to me when I used to visit Elias and she used to feed me tacos. Last time I went to visit she was asleep however I got to visit with Mr Ramirez he did not know who I was because of my mask. I'm sure Mrs Ramirez is in Heaven May God bless the Ramirez family they were like a second family to me, Joe and Evelyn Reyna
