

Cecilia Sancho

October 20, 1931 - September 13, 2020

Cecilia Sancho

Born Oct 20 1931 to Albert and Cecilia Arellano. Cecilia is preceded in passing by her husband, Frank Sancho as well as her siblings, Alberto Arellano, Modesta Noriega, Andrea Espinosa, Carmen Vallejo, and Antonia A. Martinez. She is survived by her brother, Ernesto Arellano, and children Frank Sancho Jr, Gilbert Sancho, Steve Sancho, and Sylvia Sancho Tran and numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren. Cecilia was loved by many and touched many with her witty charm and kindness. Her laughter and the way she would smile jokingly always brightened a room. Her love of music and dancing was known to all. She loved to tell stories of her life as she grew up with her parents, sisters, and brothers.

Cecilia was humble and she never forgot where she came from. Though she was proud of her life and experiences, she would never boast about what she had, except for when she spoke of her fierce love for her family.

Anyone who knew Cecilia, knew her by her nickname, "Chicken", and she would gladly share her story about how she got that nickname. She shared stories about her life with enthusiasm and what she would call "sentimiento". Her stories will be remembered and shared by her friends, family, and loved ones. She is now with her family and is dancing and smiling in heaven.

“ By far she was a great mentor to me & a very special Aunt, it's hard to think of her not being around to talk on the phone & listen to her stories of her proud young times. It breaks my heart to say good by Tia & tell her I love you & her answer would always be, I love you more. Your forever loving niece Yolanda A. Perez
