“ My sincerest condolences to the Orosco family. Your Dad was a good man and will be missed but know that he lived his life believing in the promise of living an eternal life with his Creator. He has earned his reward and has heard the beautiful music of the heavens along with the voice of God saying "Well done my child, I am well pleased" along with meeting with your Mom, the love of his life and all who went before him. Remember them and keep them alive in your hearts. Rosalinda Parra Floresville, Tx.
