“ We hit the "Good Neighbor Lottery" when we first moved in next to Celia and her family almost 14 years ago.

She was quick to make us feel right at home on our elbow cul-de-sac.

We'll always remember her as:

Kindhearted with Open Arms.

Absolutely Trustworthy.

Fun Storyteller and Quick to make Anyone give in to Laughter.

Forever Willing to Lend a Neighbor a Hand.

She was genuinely kind and generous to all of our family and we all grieve having lost her but we also know that we've been blessed to have known her.

In Celia(Grandma), Heaven has gained another angel.

We saw firsthand how everyone was around you right until your departure-A true sign of a life well lived.

To Know Her Was To Love Her.

Our family holds you Forever In Our Hearts and We Will Miss you Celia.

Sincerely,

Oscar & Sharon Castaneda and family
