

Cesar J. Armendariz

January 1, 1977 - December 18, 2025

Cesar J. Armendariz passed away on December 18, 2025, in San Antonio, Texas at the age of 48.

Cesar J. Armendariz was born on January 1st, 1977, in Palau Coahuila, Mexico to parents Moses M. Armendariz and Margarita R. Rivera. He moved to San Antonio TX in 1981. Cesar was a roofer and jack-of-all-trades.

Cesar was a loving man who was very giving and funny. He also had a bit of a crazy side. He loved to go fishing, loved spending time with his family and making people laugh, loved to draw and loved hearing music. Cesar enjoyed going to flea markets and pawn shops. He enjoyed going fishing along Josephine St and Calaveras Lake, as well as taking trips to Corpus Christi to kayak. Everyone who knew him would know that he always made sure that you would have a smile for his jokes.

Cesar J. Armendariz is preceded in death by his father, Moses M. Armendariz.

He is survived by his wife, Valerie Ramirez; his mother, Margarita R. Rivera; his daughter, Alexis Jimenez; his son, Cesar Jacob Armendariz; his brother, Guillermo (wife Gina) Armendariz; his grandchildren, Alexander, Daniel, and Jolene; and his nephews, Moses and Michael.

Cesar J. Armendariz will be greatly missed by all that were blessed to know him.

“ What I remember most about Cesar is him always laughing, always joking around, making everyone around him laugh. He and my husband would go fishing and kayaking back in the day. He was a good hearted man. My heart and prayers to his son Cesar Jacob, and all his family and loved ones.
