“ Peaceful White Lilies Basket was purchased for the family of Charlene Diane Adams.

“ When I read Maria's post my heart literally hurt. Charlene and I were best friends in high school and unfortunately after high school life got in the way, or so that was my excuse. We spoke a few times over the years but not nearly enough. Not being good with words I started searching for the right verse or poem to express how I feel and found this one that comes pretty close:

Charlene, "I know we don't really talk anymore but I wish one of us was brave enough to do something about it."

I wish I would have been brave enough before it was too late. I will always cherish our teenage memories (and some of them are doozies!) and will always regret not staying close as we became adults and moms. I will never forget your heart of gold and your beautiful smile.

*"Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted." -
Matthew 5:4 (NIV)*
