

Charles and Janet Tribolet

March 20, 2010

TRIBOLET

Charles Foster Tribolet, Lt. Col. U. S. Air Force RET and wife Janet Campbell Tribolet, entered into eternal rest on March 20, 2010. An officer and a gentleman, Charles served his country honorably as a pilot in the U.S. Air Force from 1949-1970, a veteran of WWII, Korea and Vietnam. His life was devoted to his loving wife, Janet. Always seen together, the couple made San Antonio their home in the 1960's and were proud to live in the beautiful Monte Vista Historic District. During these years, the couple became actively involved in many of our city's great civic and charitable organizations to include, the Monte Vista Home Association, The Plaza Club, Conservation Society, Opera Guild of San Antonio and the San Antonio Opera, of which Jan served faithfully as a board member for 5 years. Jan often mentioned the wonderful family moments with beloved son, Chip, camping while Charles was stationed in Alaska. The couple had great love for the arts and living in general, either trekking across the country with friends to see the Santa Fe Opera, or the many bus rides taken to the Houston Grand Opera. Life long members of First Presbyterian Church, Charles and Jan lived the lives of devout Christians. The couple leaves behind a lifetime of memories for those remaining friends to share and recall during this time of grief and celebration.
