Charles Eugene Anderwald went to be with the Lord on February 2, 2017 at the age of 92. "Charley" was born in Bandera, Texas on October 30, 1924, the youngest child of Stephen and Irene Anderwald. He joined the United States Army and proudly served with the 156th Armored Signal Co., 16th Armored Division, 3rd Army in the European Theater during the liberation of Pilsen, Czechoslovakia.

On April 29, 1946 Charley married the love of his life, Dorothy Lee Barnes and they spent 70 wonderful years together until her passing in May 2016.

Together they enjoyed years of travel, cruising to other countries, square dancing and serving as President of the Bexar Squares, camping with their friends in their RV's, and fun times at their beach house in Corpus Christie. They always enjoyed the outdoors with plenty of time for fishing and hunting! Charley was employed at Southwest Research Institute and retired in 1990 after 36 years.

His main love was his family and nothing was more important than time spent with them. Charley was a Christian and a member of Zion Lutheran Church of Helotes. He is survived by his daughters, Sandra Young and husband Buddy, and Cheryl Cox and husband Fred; granddaughters Jan Aramburu and husband Soc, Jennifer Willman and husband Doug, and Kara Young; great grandchildren Michael and Alyssa Aramburu and Peyton Willman, and
