“ I was fortunate to have worked with Chuck in Washington, DC and San Antonio, TX. My best memory of Chuck, was driving him to Golden Corral on Fridays after work, doing his run to pick up supplies for the weekends. He always said the best part of the weekends is seeing the back of his eye lids. He was the kindest man I met during my time working for the Tiger Team. We had a nickname for him, Chuck the Buzzard. Rest easy my friend, until we all meet again. From Sheree Morgan
