Charles A. Clay

October 6, 1956 – October 26, 2025

Charles A. Clay was born on October 6, 1956, in San Antonio, Texas, to J.C. and Ruby Clay. He passed away peacefully on October 26, 2025, at the age of 69.

He is survived by his loving wife of 46 years, Kathleen Clay; his daughter, Shellie Clay; his son, Tyler Clay; his brothers, Jesse Clay and wife Margaret, and John Clay and wife Cindy; his cherished grandson, Trey Cameron; and numerous nieces and nephews who adored him.

Known to most as Charlie, he was a man whose strength, kindness, and unwavering love left a lasting impact on everyone who knew him. His warm smile, contagious laughter, and easygoing charm could light up any room. A devoted husband, father, brother, and friend, Charlie always put others before himself and faced life with a quiet determination and a generous heart.

Charlie was the proud owner of an AAMCO Transmission franchise in San Antonio, where he dedicated his career to serving his community. He had a lifelong passion for working on vehicles, building race cars, and sharing that love with those around him. When he wasn't under the hood of a car, you could find him outdoors—hunting, fishing, hiking, or simply enjoying the beauty of nature.

The family would like to extend their heartfelt gratitude to the compassionate staff at Grand Brook Memory Care of New Braunfels, especially Nichole Finto;

Woodcrest Home for Senior Citizens, especially Velma, Olga, Lindsey, Apple, and Helen; and Aasta Hospice, especially Raul, Latoya, and Edna, for their exceptional care, kindness, and support.

A memorial service will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, November 8, 2025, at Dellcrest Funeral Home. Interment will be held privately.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Charlie's honor to Alzheimer's research at www.alz.org. To share memories or express condolences, please sign the guestbook at www.missionparks.com.

“ When our kids were in school times were tough for me. One Thanksgiving our pipes burst at the corner of our house. Charlie came and Doug put a hole replaced the pipe - no charge or anything- another time our car got stranded and he came and helped us get home. Ishaq and the whole family best of friends- we will miss you! Last time we “danced” at Ishaq’s wedding-

“ Sep 2020 move in day. Boxes, movers, in the middle of the chaos, here comes Charlie introducing himself and his wife Kathy and informing us that they have 3 dogs. With his big smile he temporarily took the stress away. And that's how it has always been with Charlie. Not a day went by without at least a wave or friendly hello. Especially when Charlie and Ingrid started talking about Racecars, Alamo Drag Strip or shared German history it always ended with a huge hug.

Charlie and Kathy became more than just neighbors, they became family.

We will miss you Charlie

“ One of our fondest memories of this great Man was during the construction of our new home here in the neighborhood. Charlie had walked over to meet us and strike up a conversation. We knew we lucked out with such engaging and kind neighbors. We ended up having a few drinks inside our home which was still under construction and Charlie was the first one to spill a drink in the kitchen! We laughed about that memory for so long and never stopped making new ones! He will be so dearly missed. We love you and the family so much! We will see you down the line my good friend. Thank you for being you Charlie...
