

Charles Robert Crow

December 17, 1944 - March 28, 2020

Charles Robert Crow, born on December 17, 1944 in San Antonio, Texas went to be with the Lord on March 28, 2020 at the age of 75. He is preceded in death by his parents Bobby and Ruth Crow and his wife of 46 years, Debbie. Survivors include his sons Charles Jr (Debra) and Gordon (Angeline), his grandchildren Erin (Michael) Moczygemba and Zack Crow, and great granddaughter Berkley Moczygemba and his brother Jack (Lisa) Crow.

Charles was a retired school teacher with East Central ISD where he touched and influenced many people in the community. He greeted life with a smile and sense of humor that could only come from him. He loved his family and spent many hours on the water fishing with them.

Due to CDC restrictions there will be a graveside service at Cover Cemetery for immediate family only but we invite you to observe from your vehicle outside the fence. The family appreciates your love and support. Your health is our greatest concern.

Since we cannot all be together, The Crow Family encourages you to honor Charlie Bob by going fishing, thanking a Veteran, school teacher or Bus driver.

Services will be Thursday April 2, 2020 at 10:00 AM.

“ Charlie Bob Jr., Gordon and family, you have our deepest sympathy. Your father has been a friend of my parents since they were in high school. He is a very special person that brought cheer every time he came into our store. Charlie Bob do you remember your birthday party at Chuck E Cheese when we broke the camper window on military drive? Your dad wasn't happy but knew that boys will be boys. Prayers for Peace and Comfort.

“ Mr Crow was a character. I remember being an office aid and his attendance never being ready wether that was because he knew I was Jerry Baumann’s daughter someone that he played high school football with or if that was just him being him. But I looked forward to his antics everyday and him calling me “ Baumann” and yes I am the one that he hid the Bexar Dairy Showmanship trophy from and got in so much trouble from my dad. R.I.P. Mr. Crow. My sympathy and prayers go out to the Crow family.

“ Me, Crow was my shop teacher (GMR). He was the first man who taught me how to weld. (Properly). One day in class I was done with my small engine school work and wanted to weld.

Hey said go ahead. I went to the back, grabbed my hood, material and gloves. After bout 20 mins welding, I head a “Heeyyyy! Vanwinkle, yer damn shoes on fire!

His class and way of teaching truly helped me later in life! I’ve often thought of Mr. Crow when I’d come home for leave from the Navy and drove by the school. Rest In Peace. You did a damn fine job!

“ *I have fond memories of Mr. Crow being my bus driver. On the last day of school we would have a “paper fight”. Of course we had to clean it up but when we were doing it all he did was laugh. What a great guy! Always there with a smile and sound advice for all of us. My heartfelt condolences to his family. RIH Mr. Crow.

“ I had the pleasure to have worked with Charlie Bob at the Bus Garage for many years. He kept you on your toes as to what he was up to next. He loved his students in the classroom and on the bus and they loved and respected him for his respect and fairness to each and all of them. He will be missed but never forgotten.

“ Charlie Bob was an incredible man. It was an honor to work with him at ECHS. He was a champion for children. He taught them core values as well as skills. I know he and Debbie are rejoicing in being reunited. The world is a better place because they were in it. God grant them eternal peace.

“ I remember it was my sophomore year playing basketball at East Central at Blossom. I had forgotten my shoes and Mr. Crow drove all the back to EC, got my shoes and drove back to the athletic center. He was also my bus driver in LakeSide and he would drop the seniors off in front of their homes, including mine. I will miss him.
