CUDWORTH

Charles Edward "Eddie" Cudworth, went to be with the Lord on January 31, 2015 at the age of 73. He was born October 15, 1941 in San Antonio, TX to Charles I. Cudworth and Mildred E. Cudworth who precede him in death.

Eddie was a loving husband of 52 years to Betty, father to Shelly, Toi and Blake; a brother to Charlene and Gary, a grandfather to Casey, Connor and Kelsey; and a friend to many.

He was a graduate of Highlands High School and later followed his father's footsteps and became a second generation Railroad Engineer with the Missouri Pacific Railroad and later retired from Union Pacific Railroad where he retired after 38 years of service. His work inspired his son Blake to become a 3rd generation Engineer as well. He also belonged to the BLE - Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and held many positions within the Union and was a proud Union Member.

Classic cars were his passion. He belonged to clubs such as the Alamo Classic Chevy Car Club and the Alamo Rodders. He loved showing off his classics and often placed first in show. His other passion was his grandchildren who he loved taking to see "PoPo" drive that train! He loved the family weekends spent on his wave runner wearing his red, white and blue do-rag. He was also an avid train buff and member of Community Bible Church, where he loved to worship the Lord.

Eddie, affectionately known as the "Red Rocket" by his RR friends, had a quick wit and was known for his mischievous grin underneath his mustache. Eddie loved his Dallas Cowboys and San Antonio Spurs. Although stern in his day, he was not afraid to tell his children how he loved them and was proud of them. He enjoyed Friday date nights with his wife Betty.

Survivors include his wife Betty of 52 years; three children: Shelley Berkstresser and husband Bob, Toi Cudworth, and Blake Cudworth and wife Lynette; his four-legged yorkie child named Banjo Rocket whom he adored; his grandsons: Casey and Connor Gunn; granddaughter, Kelsey Cudworth; brother-in-law, Bernie Pepe; sister, Charlene Maxwell and husband Tollan; brother, Gary Cudworth and wife Jean; and numerous nieces and nephews who all adored their uncle Eddie.
