Charles Frederick Falcon was born and raised in San Antonio, Texas. He graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School and was a proud Mustang. He attended community colleges in the area, then earned his bachelor's degree from UTSA. Charles was the proud father of 2 children, with his first wife, Linda S. Charles remarried, in 2009, to Maria Juliana Falcon. They had been married 15 years and resided most of their married life in Fresno, California. They built a wonderful life together in Fresno and combined families shortly thereafter. His life was full of laughter, eating great food, listening to music from the 70's, 80's and 90's era, and spending time with family. He deeply loved his parents and took any opportunity to speak of how blessed he was to have such supportive and caring parents. The legacy he leaves behind are his beautiful grandkids that he loved so dearly.
