

Charles E. Fusselman, Jr.

June 24, 1930 - July 13, 2013

FUSSELMAN

Charles E. Fusselman, Jr., born in San Antonio, Texas on June 24, 1930 went to be with the Lord on July 13, 2013. Charles is survived by his son, Gary L. Fusselman; grandson, Nathaniel Fusselman; and by 4 great-grandchildren. Charles and his late wife, Loretta were active members of the Alamo Air Stream Club, including Charles being Air Stream President in 1984. He was also a square dance member of Lone Star Squares. Charles and Loretta were high school sweethearts and both graduates of Burbank High School. Charles then continued on to Schreiner's College where he played football. He then went on to Southwest Texas State where he completed his education. Charles served his country as an active serviceman in the Navy during the Korean War. Later, he made a name for himself with his business, Fusselman, Lath and Paster. He was a member of Churchill Baptist Church. Charles will be greatly missed and never forgotten by everyone that knew him. Visitation will begin at 11:00am, with funeral services at 12:00pm on Saturday, July 27, 2013 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North. Interment will follow at the Hondo Cemetery.
