

Charles Graham

December 4, 1921 - July 10, 2005

GRAHAM

“...these hands of mine have supplied my own needs and the needs of my companions.” Acts 20;34

Charles W. Graham, bn. Dec. 4, 1921, in Crookston, MN, passed away 07/10/05 in San Antonio after a brief bout with cancer. A decorated US Navy veteran of WWII who served aboard the USS Pennsylvania and lifelong Union bricklayer and stonemason, he retired in 1986 and devoted his time to his true passions: his family, the outdoors, and dancing. His caring soul and subtle humor, his joy in teaching his children and grandchildren to hunt and fish, his grace and skill on the dance floor, and his steadfast devotion to the people he loved is a legacy which will never fade. He is survived and will forever be cherished by his sister Frances Molskness of Thief River Falls, MN, brother Kenneth Graham of Melbrae, CA, numerous nieces and nephews, and the lights of his life, his loving children: daughter Suzette Reitmeier and husband Bill of Dickinson, ND, son Michael Graham and wife Gail, daughters Mary Hudson and partner Philip Darrah, and LeAnne Wright and husband Bruce, and former wife Irene Graham all of San Antonio, TX, plus 7 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren. A visitation will be held from 6:00 - 9:00 PM on Monday, July 11, 2005 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North. A Memorial Service will be held Tuesday, July 12, 2005 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North. A graveside service will be held at a later date.

Tribute Wall

GG

“ To the family of Charles Graham: Having recently met Charlie at the Continental Tuesday night dance this year, I was overwhelmed by his enthusiasm for life, positive attitude, and his strong sense of dance style and grace. I wish to thank him for lendin

Gloria Grohman - July 13, 2005 at 12:00 AM

FP

“ To the Family of Charlie Graham: I am the owner of the Continental Cafe & Event Center where Charlie danced every Tuesday night. We will miss him and remember him always. I'm glad I had the honor of knowing him. May he rest in peace. Sincerely, Faye

Faye Paternella - July 12, 2005 at 12:00 AM

AP

“ May your love for your father and one another help you through. And may the memories of him help you smile. You are all in my prayers.

Amber Petherbridge - July 11, 2005 at 12:00 AM

RT

“ We all have such wonderful memories of Charley and I have thought of so many of them since his passing yesterday. He had a great passion for everything that he did and a great conviction for those things that he truly believed in. He was truly the best..

Rickie Thompson - July 11, 2005 at 12:00 AM