

Charles Ray McDonald, Jr.

October 4, 1966 - January 28, 2006

Charles Ray McDonald, Jr. went to be with our Lord Jesus Christ on January 28, 2006. He was 39 years old. He loved his family and spending time with his children. He loved getting everyone together. Charles also loved the outdoors. He was a sportsman and enjoyed hunting and fishing. He was a motor cross champion, was in the auto business and then bought an 18-wheeler and went into business for him self as an OTR Truck Driver, from 1999 - present.

Charles loved to laugh and joke. He had a huge heart and was a blessing to us all. He always seemed to bring out the best in everyone he was around. His smile was contagious and his blue eyes sparkled. He kept in contact with all of us, even when he was on the road. He was blessed to spend the last month at home with his family and is now reunited with his son Tyler Joseph McDonald and survived by his wife of 20 years Nichole Ann McDonald and sons: Sean Charles, Colton Lane, Chase Collen and Loreleigh Ann.

Grandparents: Charlie and Dorthy McDonald, Parents: Charles ray and Paula McDonald and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins. Pallbearers will be: Patrick McDonald, Russell Blalack, Jesse Elizondo, Sterling Elizondo, Michael McDonald, Christopher McDonald and Leon Swonke, Jr.

“ Nichole,
I only got to meet Charles once at Christmas with your family in 2003 but even in such a short time period it was easy to see his joy. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your children. Let those around you help you to stay strong. Your Gr
