

Charles Duncan McNaughton

February 20, 1942 - October 22, 2011

Charles Duncan McNaughton born on February 20, 1942 went to be with the Lord on October 22, 2011 at the age of 69. He is preceded in death by his parents Donald and Audrey McNaughton. Survivors include his loving wife Mary, children Audrey, Rosemary, Duncan, and Sean, brother Don McNaughton, 3 grandchildren Matthew, Nicholas and Eden, sons-in-law Oscar Felan and John Marsalis, sister-in-law Terri Lynn and nephew Don McNaughton. Duncan was known for his passion and love of politics, travel, literature and cinema. He spent most of his life as a Teacher at J.T. Brackenridge Elementary and a Teacher's Union Organizer, retiring a few years ago. He liked to brag about organizing the American Federation of Teachers, taking the union from 20 members to over 3000 members today. He also liked to tell about traveling through the jungles of Yucatan before they paved them. He graduated from Sterling H.S. in Sterling, Colorado. He obtained his B.A. from the University of Colorado in Boulder, M.A. from U.T. Austin and was a member of Teacher Corps and the Air Force. Originally from Colorado, he moved to San Antonio in the late 60's while stationed here. He loved S.A. and decided to stay. He was very involved with the community and will be missed by many.
