

Charles R. Patnode

December 17, 1932 - May 24, 2015

Charles R. Patnode, 82, of Yancey, Texas, and formerly of Deerfield, Mass., passed away on May 24, 2015.

He was born in Montague, Mass., on Dec. 17, 1932, son of Delia Miner and Arthur A. Patnode, of Deerfield, Mass. He lived in Massachusetts before moving to Texas in 1959. He served in the U.S. Army Airborne out of Fort Bragg, N.C. from 1953 to 1955. He worked as a truck driver for several moving companies, traveling to various parts of the country before retiring.

He is survived by his wife, Claudia; a son, Charles Jr., and a daughter, Delia and her husband Daniel Bermea; two stepsons, Steve Malone and his wife Trish, and Lamar Malone and his wife Olivia, all of Texas; a grandson, Joshua Hilario and his wife Tammy of Hawaii; several step-grandchildren, Whitney, Weston, William, Patrick and Tammy Malone, Steven Jones, Jennifer and Michael Aguilar-Moreno and Joshua Jones, Rusty Malone, Rosie, Jason and William Malone, Ryan and Lisl Ames, Holly and Bruce Schorsch all of Texas; two brothers, Donald R. and his wife Marilyn of Deerfield, Mass., and Richard and his wife Diane of Hephzibah, Ga.; two sisters, Merle D. Garrand and Jean Schouler, both of Massachusetts; and his good friend, Joe Coffee of San Antonio.

Charles was predeceased by a grandson Toby Malone; five siblings, Arthur D.

Patnode, Ethel Neverett, Eileen Petersen, George Patnode and Mary Lou Poirier; and a stepson, Kenneth Malone.

He was passionate about long-haul trucking, and enjoyed NASCAR, the San Antonio Spurs and playing cards.

Services will be held on Saturday, May 30