He was a member of the Plumbers' Pipefitters Union where he worked as a pipefitter for 42 years. He was a true craftsman and showed his love through his work. He loved building playhouses for his granddaughters, trailers, making sausage and later building his home and barn in Hondo. He loved the outdoors from hunting in Colorado, hauling racing pigeons, raising cattle and being involved in the Brush Party Hunting Club.

Charles is preceded in death by his parents and brother Max A. Toepperwein and is survived by his wife Lori, sons Dwayne (Suzy), Ty (Traci), his daughter Cissy (Benje). Grandchildren, Sommer (Tyler), Travis, Tate, Taryl, Dustin, Chrissy and Baylor. Great grandchildren, Tilden and Dylan. The family would like to say a SPECIAL Thank you to Kindred Hospice for the care that our Beloved Papa received.

The family also extends their sincere gratitude to the loyal family members that showed love and support during his battle with Alzheimer's.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to the Alzheimer's Association and St. Jude Children's Hospital.

Due to the ongoing COVID pandemic, there will be a small private graveside service for the immediate family, with a celebration of life at a later date.

“ I always admired and enjoyed my friendship with Charles as our two families had been friends from way back when and he was a very good friend of my dad. I saw Charles often whether it be at there old filling station on Leslie or Lester's or jus around in town or when we'd visit him at his home in Helotes or he was doing the same at ours. I'll always remember my firts brand new truck i bought back in 85' didn't come with a rear bumper and as an early suprise birthday gift, my dad had Charles build me a custom one and man it was the "real deal"!! I cherish knowing Charles in my early yrs and those after. God rest his soul.
