

Charles J Wachter Jr.

June 11, 2013 - June 11, 2013

Charles John Wachter, Jr. Being born to wonderful parents, Charles and Lela, on Aug 26, 1933, Charles Jr. made education a goal in his life. Charles Jr. married his high school sweetheart, Genese Graham in 1954. He graduated from SWTJC in Uvalde, his home town, after proudly serving four years in the US Air Force. After obtaining his Bachelors of Business Administration from the University of Houston in 1962, Charles worked for several large corps. in Houston where he became well known in oil field credit. In 1973, Charles came to San Antonio as Credit Manager for Prescon Corp.

Before leaving Houston, Charles was instrumental in restoring Scouting to the Sugarland Area. Upon leaving Prescon Charles became manager of CWB SAWS Customer Service until he retired in 1995. The most loving family man, he was tragically preceded in death by his son, Charles John, III in 1996.

Timothy, the second son, blessed him with four grandsons: Timothy Dillon, wife Laura , Austin John, Nicholas Charles, and Christopher John. All of whom he adored. Other than his wife and family, he leaves behind his sister Kathryn Boyce and her lovely family. His astuteness in the business world matched only his enduring love and care for his family. He is greatly missed and deeply honored by his family and friends.
