

Charlie Davidson Jr.

December 16, 1940 - June 12, 2026

The family of Charlie Davidson Jr. is deeply saddened to announce his passing on Friday, June 12, 2026, at 7:43 a.m. He was born on December 16, 1940, to Charlie Sr. and Dora Davidson in Anna Rose, Texas.

He found his lifelong partner, Amandina G. Davidson, and was married on September 25, 1960.

He joined the Army and served our country proudly. He was stationed in Korea from 1958 to 1960 during the Korean Conflict. While in the service, he was a Marksman Expert and then became an instructor at Ft. Ord, California. After leaving the service, he started his career as an insurance agent, then worked numerous jobs such as tax preparer, process server, craftsman, and plant enthusiast. He was a man who knew how to do everything. Charlie loved hunting and fishing with his family. Left to mourn him are his loving wife of 65 years, Amandina G. Davidson; 4 children: James (Cathy) Davidson of San Antonio, TX; Larry (Eva) Davidson of Tahiti; Shyrlynn (Roger) Martinez of Abilene, TX; and Charles III (Geneva) Davidson of San Antonio, TX; 8 grandchildren, 17 great-grandchildren, and 1 sister, Dora Garcia of Alice, TX.
