“ Will always remember June's beautiful and welcoming smile. She was a great person and a wonderful prayer warrior. She never forgot who you asked her to pray for, she really cared and would even months later ask how that person she prayed for was doing. When I first came to NW Hills Baptist Church she was one of the first to come and welcome me and you knew it was sincere. She was a blessing in my life. I will always thank God for her and Curtis. Curtis, may God comfort you and your family in this time of loss. God Bless.
