

Charline Roberson

August 13, 1938 - July 12, 2024

Charline Walton Roberson, age 85, of San Antonio, Texas, passed away on July 12, 2024, at Kindred Hospital in San Antonio.

Charline was born on August 13, 1938, in Wellington, Texas to Stella “Juanita” Pettett and David Franklin Walton. Juanita and David separated soon after Charline was born, and Charline spent several years and most summers with her grandparents in the farming community of Quail, Texas. Charline moved around quite a bit, living mostly in Roswell, New Mexico and San Antonio, Texas when not on the farm in Quail.

In Roswell, two important things happened. First, Charline met Donald Roberson in grade school, whom she eventually reconnected with and married. Second, her mom Juanita met Bob Monroe, where they later moved to San Antonio and married. In doing so, Charline gained a fantastic stepfather and an extended family of stepbrothers and stepsisters. Charline graduated from North East High School in San Antonio (back when there was only one high school in the North East School District). Charline and Donald kept in touch over the distance of the west Texas plains, and were married on March 14, 1959 in San Antonio. They lived in Roswell until early 1962 when they moved back to San Antonio for good. Charline was a devoted homemaker - the hardest, most underpaid job on the planet.

Charline is survived by her children Edward Roberson (Monica), Dura Dittmar (Dwight) and Warren Roberson (Monica); two granddaughters, Erin Roberson and Deidra Dittmar; and stepsisters Sharon Lucart, Shirley Hughes and Normandy Monroe. She is preceded in death by her husband Donald Roberson; mother and stepfather, Juanita and Bob Monroe; and stepbrothers Robert Monroe, John Monroe and Donald Riemenschneider.

A graveside service will be held on July 22, 2024 at 1:00 PM Mission Burial Park North Cemetery by the Dominion, 20900 I-10 W. San Antonio, TX 78257. Pastor Bill Shockley will be officiating.
