“ I'm not sure how i happened upon this obituary because I knew Cheryl as Cheryl. I didn't know her as Cheya . I am so sad to here of her passing as well as her son PJ's passing. This is heartbreaking and shocking to me. Cheryl's ex husband and my husband we're friends in College. I met her on her wedding day . They were married at the Little Church at La Villita. I remember when she was pregnant with Pj. Shawn and I had just lost a two month old son and she was she was telling me about the Dr who was to deliver Pj. We became friends. When i became pregnant with my daughter I decided I wanted the Dr who delivered Pj to deliver our daughter. I had issues with my last pregnancy partly because of the doctor. I started having the same issues with my pregnancy with my daughter and was bedridden for 4 months yet needed to see my doctor once a week until she was born. Cheryl was the one who took the time and drove me to every Drs appointment every week from April to July. Sara was almost born on Cheryl birthday. Sara was born July 15 and if I remember correctly Cheryl's birthday was July 16. We remained friends through Lauren's birth and did outings with our kids and then somehow lost touch and went our separate ways. I always held the thought of her in my heart . She played a big part in my daughter being born healthy and living. Ironically when our daughter was married she chose to be married at the Little Church . When our daughter chose that Church I thought of Cheryl. I will always remember her wit and kindness and selfishness. I loved her as a friend and will pray for her and Lauren and family. I remember what a beautiful little boy PJ was . My heart aches for the family to lose both of these beautiful souls way to soon. May God bless them 💔😭

“ To my sister who I will miss terribly, your daughter, Lauren Lynch Lora, has shown such grace and love for you and I sooooooooooooo hope that you know this in heaven. She has been such a strong and loving person who has supported you through this long journey and has stuck by you and would do it over and over again. You were an amazing individual and you have shown your love and took care of me when I was young but what I so hope you knew in your last few weeks, you knew Lauren would do whatever she could of for you and stayed by your side to hold your hand and to let you know you were NOT alone in this journey. She loves you and did not want you to feel alone. I know she loved you with all her heart as I do and we both want you to not feel the pain and misery you felt in your last days. You have made such an impact on so many people and you will be terribly missed by so many people. I, as your sister, cannot thank you enough for all you have done for me in my life. GOD SPEED SISTER and I will see you on the other side

“ She was a great friend and co-worker and give excellent advice. She once told me when people are intimidated by your strength and happiness that is a reflection of their weakness not yours. These words of wisdom and her presence will be missed.

“ Some years ago I was told I needed heart surgery. Of course my husband and I had no idea where to begin. Out of the blue Chaya called us and gave us invaluable help. We will be forever grateful for her information.
