

Christopher Duane Hendricks

October 17, 1988

Christopher Duane Hendricks was born to Connie F. Howerton and Gary Duane Hendricks on October 17, 1988, in San Antonio, Texas. Christopher is preceded in passing by his grandparents, William Howerton, Joyce Kosharek, and Gary Louis Hendricks, as well as his uncle, Bobby Howerton. He is survived by his parents, his spouse, Sheena Greer, his grandmother, Opal Howerton, his children, Jayden Hendricks, Landen Hendricks, Emalie Hendricks, and Michael Hendricks, his stepdaughters, Meagan Pecina, and Maddy Pecina, his sister, Tina F. Hendricks, his brother, Wesley Hendricks, as well as 2 uncles, 5 aunts, and numerous cousins.

Christopher was a loving father that spent as much time as he could with his kids. His children were the light of his life, and he loved doing hobbies with them like playing video games, sharing his ancestry of Vikings with them, collecting Pokémon cards, building furniture together, and BBQing for them whenever he got the chance. Christopher was an amazing cook with a specialty in cooking ribs. Even with his talents he could still be caught eating cereal like there was no tomorrow. His youngest son notes specifically Coco Pebbles being their shared favorite to eat together, but it was safe to say any box that came his way was enjoyed. He enjoyed playing board games like CLUE and Splendor with everyone. Christopher also enjoyed gardening, playing guitar, and was a bit of a wine connoisseur. His sense of humor kept his family and friends laughing and will be greatly missed.

Christopher was a loving spouse, son, brother, father, stepfather, and friend that will be dearly missed by all.

“ Chris was my 20 year old sons best friend. They met gaming online and instantly became like brothers. He meant so much to my son, Logan, even though they never met in person. He frequently talked about how much he loved and cherished his kids. He helped my son by just being an ear to listen to him when he needed. The world will truly miss this kind soul. My thoughts and prayers are with the family and friends of Chris.
