“ I'm not really sure how long I have known Chris. He was always really sweet and had a shyness to him that I just adored. He was always very polite and respectful. He always had this little chuckle and gave the biggest smiles. I was very fortunate that he reached out to me a few months back and we were able to have some good conversations and laughs over the past two months. We talked about forgiveness and obstacles that life puts in our way. I'm saddened by this loss but I know that you are in the hands of God now and you are free from all of your pain.

The boys and I will miss your presence.

God bless, Loretta, Kiowa & Terrance Carter
