

Christopher Alan Landry

February 16, 1981 - April 23, 2012

Christopher Alan Landry graced the world on February 16, 1981. Born, raised, and made his home with his family in San Antonio, TX. Chris touched the lives of everyone he crossed paths with. He was never seen without a smile and something to say that made you laugh or sigh. He will be forever loved by his wife and best friend, Jessica Lynn Marjonen-Landry, his pride and joy, his daughter , "Kiddo," Marcie Ann Landry; his supportive parents, Chuck & Becky Landry and Carol & Bill Andrews; his mother in-law, Tracy Marjonen and father in-law, Kurt Marjonen; his grandmother, "Nommie," Rose Landry; his sister, Caitlin Rebeka Landry Anderson and her husband, Matt Anderson; his "new" brother, Shane Lawson; his step-siblings, Colby Lawson, Eryn Andrews, and Ashley Andrews, and countless aunts, uncles, cousins, and close friends that were indeed family. He has gone now to join his grandparents, "Poppa" Charles Landry, Wayne & Francis Nixon; his uncle, Tim Nixon; and many of his and his wife's beloved pets. Chris was never one to slow down; he was member of Boy Scout Troop 8, an active member of the James Madison FFA and continued to have a love for animals. After his graduation from Madison High School in 1999 he attended college through ACCD and Blynn College, and ultimately obtained his real estate certification. He was an all around amazing husband, dad, son, and friend. Forever loved...
