

Christopher Leone

December 27, 1957 - January 26, 2013

Christopher Leone departed into the arms of the Lord on Saturday, January 26, 2013 at the age of 55. Chris grew up in Long Beach, Long Island. He spent much of his younger years with his Uncle Chris at his boatyard where he developed a passion for fishing and later became a skilled fisherman. Chris moved to San Antonio, Texas in 1976 where he met the love of his life, Terri, and decided this was his home. He began learning the water treatment business with his father, then later worked at Alamo Water before opening his own business, River City Water, in 1991, which became a thriving business. He loved being on the water, and he enjoyed taking his friends and family with him, the water was his home. He spent a lot of time with his family, readily available to help with anything that was needed. He was a caring and generous man with everyone he knew. He was preceded in death by his beloved parents Marcella Wright and Philip Leone. Chris is survived by his loving wife, Terri, of 24 years; his daughter, Becky Larry Pray; grandchildren Breanna, Heather, Courtney and Ethan; brothers Phillip, Ricky, Reynold Kimberly and Jonathan; sisters Leonora, Lori, Diane Greg and Lisa; as well as numerous nieces and nephews. Chris will be greatly missed by all his family and friends.
