“ Chris had that amazing ability to always make everyone laugh! A funny man but took his job seriously - won't be the same without him. I'll be keeping you in prayer. Praying you will be smiling soon over wonderful memories. - Ellen Stamey

Chris was a wonderful man, a great friend, a mentor, and always brought a smile to our faces. I am thankful for the limited time that I had with Chris. My deepest condolences to Lilly, James, and family. Your loss is truly ours. He was a brother. He who remains in the hearts of those he leaves behind, will always be with us. Chris will always be with us.

I first met Chris while I was in Pristina with ICITAP and we immediately "hit it off"! I'll always treasure the times we spent together. He was a great friend and brother with a gift for making people feel good. He will be in my thoughts and prayers. My sincere condolences to Lilly, James and family. He will never be forgotten!

A tremendous patriot, friend, and innovator. Expect he's already telling God how things could be improved up in heaven. But he will be sorely missed on earth.

Chris was a great Friend; Everyone in Kosovo remembers him as a man who brought smile to life. I will always be thankful that I had the opportunity to work with him and to call him a friend. I will cherish his memory for years to come.

The poet Yeats once wrote "Count where man's glory most begins and ends, and say my glory is I had such friends."

In Sympathy,
