

Ciria A. Robins

June 9, 1917 - June 9, 2006

“And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.”—St. Francis of Assisi

Ciria Acosta Robins went to be with God on May 14, 2006 at 10:18 pm. At the age of 88 she succumbed to death peacefully at home after a short battle with emphysema. The hand of God touched her and gave her His peace. Her spirit now dwells with her beloved husband Fred O. Robins of 44 years as they walk hand in hand with Jesus.

Ciria was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend. She loved to paint, visit museums, travel, spend time with her daughters, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She devoutly read her bible every morning, watched her “shows”, enjoyed her Pepsi and lived life to the fullest.

She is survived by a loving family. Her sister Mary Jane of San Antonio; children Robert Robins and wife Margarita, of San Antonio, Billy Fred Robins and wife Sally, of Washington state, Shirley Robins, of Austin, Loretta Fisher and husband Robert, of Thousand Oaks, CA, Marilyn Barrows and husband Jimmy, of Austin 10 grandchildren; and 15 great-grandchildren. She loved us all!

An intimate viewing is planned at Mission Park South for Wednesday, May 17th at 6 pm with a Rosary to follow at 7 pm. Funeral services will also be held at the Mission Park South Mortuary and Cemetery. The address is 1700 S. E. Military Dr, San Antonio, TX, 78214. The Liturgy Service will be delivered by Father Juan from Hospice of Austin and commence promptly at 1 PM.
