“ My dad was the greatest most caring man I know...I remember when I was little about 11 years old my dad took me to a oldies but goodie concert downtown. We listened to chubby checkers, one of the supremes and temptations...my dad took me to the floor level so we could dance "the twist"...

“ oh grandpa not a day goes by without thinking about you grandpa. i still cant believe your gone, i miss you so much. i will always remember you would always take us to berger king after school, the taquaria by sams, and taking me and my sisters to get raspas by the bakery. you also made sure i got to my basketball practices on time and made sure i never missed a day, you also teached me how to drive and parallel park, and i also remember you teaching us how to bowl when you and grandma took us bowling. i will never forget you were so proud of me because i got into art and you got so excited to show me your art work you did when you were young(my grandpa was a very good drawer). it still breaks my heart that your gone, it feels so weird. you did so much for us, you were like a second dad to me and my sisters. You are the Best grandpa/dad we had. we love you so much grandpa. we are just glad your finally not suffering and in no more pain and is at peace with the lord. till we meet again grandpa.
with love, Cindy
