

Clara Hurley

September 3, 1938 - September 28, 2020

What a trip, a most wonderful, happy and joyous trip! It began in 1944 with a serious case of “puppy love” in the 1st and 2nd grades. Progressing to a matrimonial ceremony on June 15, 1956 resulting in 64 years and 3 months of marriage.

Clara was a Proverb chapter 31 verses 10-31 wife. She was the most caring, giving and sweetest individual imaginable. 64 years of marriage to her authorizes me to state as fact. She was the classical southern lady.

Clara Hurley (nee Grant) age 82 (September 3, 1938) was received into the arms of Christ Jesus Monday, September 28, 2020. She was preceded in death by son, Joel Shawn Hurley, parents, Robert and Lydia Grant, brother, Lynell Grant and many cousins. Clara is survived by husband Joe; daughter, Angela Torres (Ramon); brother, Robert Jackie Grant (Marcie); grandchildren, Ramon Torres, Jr. , Megan Danae Torres, Liam Riley Hurley, and Isla Marie Hurley; honorary granddaughter, Clarissa Chapa; cousins, Janell Palmer, La Rue Cobb, Gary McCaffity and Carla Golden.

Again, it was a wonderful trip, full of excitement, love, joy and happiness.

“ Joe,
I just saw the notice in the San Antonio Express News. I told my wife when I saw the photo "these are two of my high school classmates." It has been a long time, but friendships never end. I want to offer my deepest sympathy and condolences on Clara's passing. My prayers go out for you and Clara's soul.

“ A friend I will surely miss. She was the most caring thoughtful sweet lady. She was always doing things for others. She had a heart for the Lord and a real prayer warrior. I'm still having trouble accepting the fact that she is really gone.

“ Ms. Clara words cannot express how much love you had given my mother and me. You are God's special angel that when she prayed you felt like you could feel the spirit of the Lord rain down his blessing. You will be missed.
