

Clara Tristan Manjarrez

February 9, 1951 - June 25, 2020

Clara Tristan Manjarrez, born February 9, 1951 in San Antonio, TX, arrived in the loving arms of Our Lord on June 25, 2020 at the age of 69. A strong and faithful mother of 2 sons, a grandmother of 5 and great-grandmother of one, Clara was a courageous breast cancer survivor with a love for all things Betty Boop, San Antonio Spurs, as well as arts & crafts. After proudly graduating from Brackenridge High School in 1971 and fondly bidding farewell to her purple jacket days, Clara worked at Kingston Manufacturing, where she nurtured a love of sewing that touched the hearts of all who knew her. She became a dedicated employee of the Levi's Strauss & Co. in 1978, where cherished relationships with co-workers blossomed into lifelong friendships that served as a source of support for years beyond her retirement in 2004. Clara loved to spoil her grandchildren with trips to the movies, special meals and secret laughs that always made her day. She quickly grew to love what they loved, including a passion for sports and she always cherished time with her Tia Mary, enjoying margaritas.

Clara was preceded in death by her husband, Miguel Manjarrez, Sr.; her mother, Angelina Tristan; and brothers Dario Rosales, Raymond Rosales and Richard Rosales. She is survived by her sons, Joseph (Veronica) Manjarrez and Miguel Manjarrez, Jr.; granddaughter, Addison Olivia; and grandsons Patrick Joseph, Alejandro Miguel, Christopher and Jimmy; great-grandson Gaven; sister Debra (Chris) Dovalina; brothers Ernest (Melinda) Rosales and Larry Roy (Martha) Tristan; Aunt Mary Tristan and Uncle Valentin Tristan, along with numerous nieces, nephews godchildren and extended family.

Clara was greatly loved by all, and will be dearly missed.

“ My beautiful best friend, Godmother Clara. Almost 38 years of a wonderful friendship that I will always cherish in my heart. You left too soon and I am already missing you so very much. I miss our 3 to 4 hour calls, I miss our laughs, our get togethers, just the way we connected we knew each others feelings. We had wonderful and sad years at Levis, and we knew how to laugh at everything. We shared our dreams, our fears, our tears, our secrets, our happy and sad moments and most of all we understood each other so well. I thank our Heavenly Father for putting you in my path. Just know that I love you my Friend and will always hold you very close in my heart. Until we meet again Clarita I will keep missing you.

“ Clara was a beautiful person inside and out. Always talking to me about her battle with Cancer she was Strong and always told me to keep fighting and never give up. She was a member of our family and we always enjoyed her company. Little sweet Clara you will never be forgotten. We love you Always. Thank you for the years of Friendship you shared with my Mother n Law Sylvia.
