

Clara G. Ortiz

November 29, 1964 - July 31, 2022

Clara Ortiz (57) was born November 29, 1964, in San Antonio, TX. She went to be with our Lord on July 31, 2022, in San Antonio, TX. She was preceded in death by her parents, David, and Aurora Gutierrez; mother and father-in-law, Manuel and Susie Ortiz; sister, Mary Jane Lira; brother, Daniel Gutierrez; God daughters, Placida Ybarra and Jennifer Nicole Christenson and sister in laws Gina Sue Ortiz and Rachael Gutierrez. She is survived by her loving husband of 38 years, Randall Ortiz; sisters, Aurora Ybarra (Eddie), Lucia Aragon (Julian); brothers, David Gutierrez Jr., and Jose Manuel Gutierrez (Christy); godchildren, Matthew Cassiano, Jake Daniel Rodriguez, Duane Bang Ludwig Jr., Allyson Haskins, Blanca Vasquez, Lauren Clara Perez, Sammantha Gutierrez, Sofia Villarreal, Lydia Raine Santos, and Jade Ludwig. Clara was loved by many and will be deeply missed. Clara was married for 38 great years to her best friend and confidant Randy Ortiz. Clara and Randy met when they were young teenagers and lived on the same street. They married young but were forever committed to each other. They traveled together often, they loved entertaining, going out to new restaurants, watching sports on TV and in person and being the best Aunt and Uncle to their family. They have always been thought of highly and were selected to be Godparents to 12 children. This says so much about her and Randy and their commitment to family. She was an avid Dallas Cowboy and Spurs fan; she collected an abundance of mementos to display her pride. She was the best party planner, loved disco balls and loved to dance. She is known for her unapologetically loud display of love, contagious laugh, and signature hairdo. Fiesta time was a favorite of hers as she looked forward to collecting Fiesta medals with her husband and nieces. Clara was a deeply religious woman who prayed to the saints for everyone that she loved. She was a loving caregiver to her parents and in-laws and saw them through to the very end with never a complaint. She was a caregiver to her sister-in-law, who also preceded her in death and had several clients she was working with that loved her as their own because of the care that she gave to each of them. It wasn't a job, but more like a daily visit to people she loved and cared for. Most importantly she was a devoted wife who loved her husband more than words. Clara was loved by so many and will be deeply missed.

“ I have many memories of my Tia Clara, who because of our "age" difference, I called Clara, not Tia. Clara fascinated me when I was younger; the way she spent time on her hair and makeup, making sure everything was just right. She was already a beautiful women with a big beautiful smile, she didn't need to spend that time primping, but I guess it made her feel pretty. I thought she was pretty w/o all of the primping. But I still liked watching her go through her regimen. The most prominent memory, however, is when she corrected me on the lyrics to a song. I don't speak or understand Spanish and I know very little about the Mexican/Latino culture so I didn't always get things right. I sang "come on everybody let's do that funga" (which stood for fun), and she said "it's conga". "Really?!" OK. So now every time I hear Gloria Estafan, I think of Clara. You will be sorely missed, Tia. I love you. Maria

Our sincere condolences to Ms Clara's family. Such a beautiful angel I will remember Ms Clara as. My mother (Florinda) and Clara work together for years and became such good friends. Ms Clara meant the world to my mom and for that we will always be grateful. Ms Clara, never forget their friendship and would always call mom and stay in touch. May you be dancing with the angels Ms Clara and I know you will see mom in heaven and be together once again.
God bless
Gloria, Florinda's daughter.
