

Clarence Richard "Red" Harding, Jr.

January 16, 1942 - October 13, 2008

Clarence Richard "Red" Harding, Jr., passed away peacefully October 13, 2008 at the age of 66. He has gone to be with those who await him in heaven. He attended Brackenridge High School, and proudly served his country aboard the USS Kitty Hawk in the United States Navy. He married the love of his life Rosemary Farris in 1961 in Chula Vista, California. They returned to San Antonio where he and Rosemary later became the proud owners of a local welding and fabrication company. His parents Clarence Sr. and Nita Harding-Wilson, his sister Susie, and his beloved wife Rosemary precede him in death. He is survived by his daughter and her husband Michelle "Kim" Friesenhahn and Steve, and daughter Kelly MacAllister. "Popo" had three grand children Travis and Brandi Friesenhahn, and Connor MacAllister. His sister Mary Ann Knippa, his mother-in-law Mary Farris, and many other family members and close friends also survive him. We wish to thank all of the very compassionate caregivers and nurses for their care and support during the recent months.

Tribute Wall

DZ

“ There is obviously no good time or way for someone whom you care about to die. It would be so much better if I could convey my condolences in person, but at the very least I want you to know that I am out here and I care. Please let me know if there is a

Donna Beckham Zapata - October 17, 2008 at 12:00 AM

RW

“ WE HAD THE PRIVELAGE OF KNOWING YOUR FATHER HE WAS A WONDERFUL MAN OUR PRAYERS GO OUT TO YOU AND YOUR FAMILY.

RAST IRON WORKS - October 16, 2008 at 12:00 AM

LM

“ Kelly,

We are so sorry to hear about your dad's passing. As you know, we thought the world of your parents. Please accept our heartfelt condolences on the loss of your father. John and I will keep all of you in our prayers.

Lesa Morgan - October 16, 2008 at 12:00 AM