

Clarice Franklin Seeman

July 15, 1924 - January 5, 2016

Clarice Franklin Seeman passed away on Tuesday, January 5, 2016. She was born on July 15, 1924 to Louis and Bertha Franklin in Laredo, Texas. She married Norman Seeman, who was stationed at Ft. McIntosh in Laredo, on January 4, 1944 and they had two sons.

Clarice attended college at the University of Texas in Austin and Hunter College in New York. She was a full time mom and homemaker who devoted her life to her family.

She was a loving wife, mom, grandmother and great grandmother who will be sorely missed by her family. Her most famous quote was "you never stop worrying about your children." She is survived by her sons, Alan and his wife Fay and Louis and his wife Norma; her grandchildren, Laura and her husband Steve Rothschild, Isaac Seeman and Alex Seeman; her great granddaughter, Rebecca Rothschild, and her beloved sister, Selma Avigael.

The family would like to acknowledge and thank her lifelong housekeeper and friend, Trini Lopez, her loving caregivers, Juana Morales and Wanda Williams and her physician, Dr. Robert Schnitzler and his assistant, Vicky Paparelli.
