November 16, 1973 - January 13, 2020

Clarisa Renae Pena, age 46 was peacefully called home to be with our Lord on January 13, 2020 after a valiant fight against cancer. She was the blessed and loving daughter of Gilbert R Cuellar and Rosie S Cuellar. A beautiful and deeply spiritual person, Clarisa devoted her life to the Lord and to helping all those around her. As proud owner and proprietor of the iconic Flipside Record Parlor since 1994, she was a champion and friend to many local artists and musicians by promoting their art, their music and their dreams. As a devoted mother, Clarisa worked hard and held numerous jobs over the years to provide a loving home for her two beautiful daughters, Jessica R. Erevia and Olivia K. Pena. Clarisa led a very active spiritual life. She was a Sister in Christ, active in many Catholic churches including her own. She served as a CCD Teacher and attended several A.C.T.S retreats passing the joy and love of the Lord to others. Beautiful inside and out, Clarisa left a lasting impression on everyone she met. Her passing leaves a heartache that no one can heal. Her love leaves us memories no one can steal. and Olivia K. Pena, her sisters Loraine Marie Gunn and Liz Cuellar Escobar, brothers Gilbert Robert Cuellar and Roman Miguel Cuellar, brother-in-laws Buddy Gunn, Justin Escobar, sister-in-laws Velia Bravo and Laura Varela. And “ I send my sincere condolences to Clarisa's family. Although I never had the chance to meet beautiful Clarisa, I have heard a lot about this precious soul through my coworker and friend. I felt a connection to her because of cancer and because of her love for our Lord JESUS. My heartfelt and sincere condolences go out to Clarisa's family and her friends. May GOD give you all His comfort and peace and strength and may He hold you oh so close to His heart during this difficult time. GOD BE WITH YOU. John 3:3

My condolences to Gilbert and ROSIE Cuellar . There are no words that I can offer for your loss . I never met Clarissa, but it's almost like I knew her through ROSIE . She loved the Lord and put all her trust in him. Now she is resting in his arms. Thank you Lord for the gift of Clarissa. To know she fought the good fight, she finished the race and she kept the faith , 2 Timothy 4:7 . I will not be present with you but my love and prayers are with you. All my love

“ We went to school together from elementary to high school. I remember your beautiful smile that lit a room and your kindness. As people often do we lost touch after graduating, but a couple of years ago I happened to go to the record store with my own daughter to buy tickets for her first concert. There you were with that beautiful smile & showed kindness to her. You let me know your story and I told you mine. It was as if no time had passed, but you didn't mention your struggle. I found out about your struggle through an article. I wish your physical story had continued, but your eternal life story has now begun and you will continue to shed an even brighter light. To your loved ones, God is your refuge and strength. May He bring you comfort.
