

Claudio M. Maldonado Jr.

July 7, 1947 - May 23, 2021

Claudio M. Maldonado, Jr. joined his Lord and Savior on May 23, 2021 in San Antonio, Texas. He was born on July 7, 1947 in Cotulla, Texas to Claudio D. Maldonado and Francisca Martinez. Mr. Maldonado was preceded in death by his sister, Petra Gamboa; and brothers, Angel and Apolonio Maldonado. He is survived by his beloved wife of 33 years, Mary Ann (Benavides) Maldonado and his best friend and companion Chiquito; sisters, Guadalupe Trevino, Frances De Leon (Mariano), Mary Sobrebilla-Gonzalez (Jose); brother, Juan Maldonado (Rosie); and numerous nieces & nephews. He was a witty, caring, compassionate person who never met a stranger and always looked for the good in everyone and always left them laughing with one of his famous jokes. Always wanting to help family and friends and confessed to his beloved wife that he spent the best years of his life with her his beloved Soul Mate. He will be dearly missed by all who knew him. He is telling his jokes to all his family and friends who met and welcomed him at his eternal home. Thank you for sharing your life with us, you truly left an impression in everyone's heart.

“ Claudio was a man of God and he touched many lives - including my own. I know he looked forward to the day that he was embraced by the arms of Jesus and, while we will miss him dearly, I know that he is experiencing true joy.
I know you will keep looking after us my dear friend and apostle - one day we shall all meet again.

“ Mary Ann, praying for the Lord's comfort. I know he will missed so much. The song that stays in my mind for him is "I can only Imagine." and the humorous memory is when he would make so much fun of Diane when she was hit crossing the street and she lost her shoe, I can still hear his laughter.

*Keeping you in our prayers,
