

Clay Bain

September 1, 1934 - December 26, 2005

BainClay “Bobby” Bain born on September 1, 1934 went to be with the Lord on December 26, 2005 at the age of 71 years. Clay’s quick wit and ability to make people feel good was widely shared by many. He was a self-made businessman for over 45 years successfully running Triad Painting and wallcovering. We are proud of his dedication to his family, friends and business acquaintances. Clay is survived by his Daughter; Darlene Gauthier and husband Rusty, Sons; Clay Daniel Bain and wife Missy Walaski, Chris Bain and wife Betty, Sisters; Joyce, Linda, Gerry Ann, Dixie, Carol and JoAnn Bain, Brothers; Billy E. Bain and Roy Lee Bain, Grandchildren; Jennifer, Heather, Lauren, Bianca and Jessica and a host of friends. Clay will be sorely missed by his family, friends, and the community he loved.

“ I always loved hearing from Clay. He would always have silly jokes and stories - something to make me laugh. His tone was gruff, but his bark was much worse than his bite, and he always took the time to talk, and see if he was still on my "Christmas List"
