

Clemencia De Santiago Arguello

August 30, 1940 - October 14, 2017

Clemencia De Santiago Arguello passed away on October 14, 2017 in San Antonio, Texas. She was born on August 30, 1940 in Crystal City, Texas to Andres De Santiago and Francisca Iruegas De Santiago. As a devout Christian, Mrs. Arguello loved and helped anyone who was in need. Her passions included watching the Food Network Channel, participating in arts and crafts with her grandchildren, and watching the San Antonio Spurs games. She also loved hosting garage sales and talking with every new person she met. She was preceded in death by her parents; her brother, Andres De Santiago; and her son-in-law, Richard Mendoza. She is survived by her beloved husband of 57 years, Pedro C. Arguello; daughters, Elizabeth Arguello Mendoza, JoAnn Sandoval (Martin); son, Pedro Arguello, Jr.; sisters, Elvira Lopez (Martin), Carmen Martin (Leon), Alice Gonzales (Cesar); brother, Eduardo De Santiago; grandchildren, Rebecca Veliz (Mark Montes), Belinda Echon (Anthony), and Amanda Veliz; great grandchildren, Marky, Amber, and Elijah; and numerous nieces, nephews, and godchildren. Her family would like to embrace hospice and nurse Janette and aide Christina.

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to the family. My heart breaks for all of you. Clem was an awesome woman. I loved our long talks in the front yard when Joann and the girls lived next door to me. May the Lord give all of you the strength you'll need to get through these trying times. R.I.P. Clem, you will be missed by many. Sandra Arce

“ From the first time I met you, I knew you were someone special. Eugene and I think back on the different times we saw you and they are all happy memories. Our family will miss you, rest in peace Tia Clem.

“ Words cannot express how much I miss you Nana. It's as if I can't wake up from this nightmare. It's so hard to live in a world that you are no longer a part of. You were the strongest woman I knew, and I feel lost without you. I know it was your time, but I wasn't ready to let you go. Who's going to make sure I cook the Thanksgiving gravy right? Who's going to send me lovely birthday cards and "just because" cards filled with your words of wisdom? Who's going to pray for me every night? Who's going to call me just because they wanted to hear my voice? Who am I supposed to turn to when life gets hard? I just love you so much! You will always be in my heart...

“ Clem I'm gonna miss you so much, calling you to discuss update of the Spurs how we both felt so bad when Tim Duncan retired. How you have always been there for me and my family, how sometimes it was a scolding I needed but I knew you were right. Everything you taught me every lesson how God wants me to be a wife a mother and a friend and I hear myself talking and I hear your teaching mostly patience that's something you had to put up with all of us, you have always been more like a big sister to me always been there. So many memories we had..funny too, long talks..cannot express how much I love you sis..Tino says he appreciates you for helping us..till we meet again sis always in my heart 🙌

“ Mom, I was truly Blessed that our Lord Jesus Christ chose you as my Mother. You have always loved all of us unconditionally no matter what I will miss our daily talks and your wisdom that came along with it. I will also miss watching Spurs games with you. You had a big heart for everyone. You were a true Woman of God and very faithful to Him. Love You Sooo much. I will miss you!!!!!!!

“ Arguello Family, the beauty of Clem wasn't just the love, kind and thoughtfulness she had for each of you but that she had it for the rest of us! Even her scolding came with a side of Love! We are all better because she existed in our lives! You will be miss Clem! Hold that spot with ur smile for us. Until we meet again...praying for all of you! Continued Blessings!
