

Clement John Wert

March 31, 2009 - March 31, 2009

Clement John Wert, age 67, passed away suddenly on March 27, 2009. He is survived by his wife and deepest love of 46 years Patricia E. Wert, daughters Erika Ann and Christine Marie, son Joseph Michael Anne Marie, grandson Joshua Lee, sisters Pauline Jack and Linda Jimmy, best friend and brother at heart John Hatch, numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and beloved friends. He was born on January 3, 1942, in Richmond, Indiana, and moved to San Antonio at the age of 14 with his parents. On June 8, 1963, he married the love of his life, Patricia. He served in the US Navy for 4 years 1962 - 1966 on the USS Franklin D. Roosevelt where he received the National Defense Service Medal and honorably discharged as a First Class Petty Officer. He went to work at Kelly Air Force Base as planner for aircraft C-5's and retired after 31 years. For 7 1/2 years, he worked at Boeing as an aircraft planner and retired one last time in 2006. Since then he has paid heed to his hobbies already established such as building model airplanes, being an avid reader and supporter of history and taking care of his beloved wife. He and his wife were members of St. Benedict's Catholic Church for 48 years where he also served on the school board and as a lay distributor of Holy Communion. His other notable extracurricular activities included baseball coach to his children, establishing his own painting business, and seeing Broadway plays and movies with his wife and daughter, something he loved until the end.
