“ We are so very sorry for the loss of Clem. Our deepest condolences to the entire Gallegos family. Irma, you and Clem have always treated us like family and we thank you for that. We feel blessed to have been able to know Clem. Maribel told us that he always included us in his prayers and asked about us often. His thoughtfulness meant a lot. He was a very caring person. Maribel, you know you are in our thoughts at this very difficult time. Thank you & your family for allowing us to be a part of his prayer service the day he passed away. I know that there are no words that can take away or ease your pain & sadness but if you ever need to talk, we are a phone call away or even just a 15 minute drive away. We thought highly of your dad. Your dad had a good heart and showed so much love for people who weren't even a part of your family. We were lucky to know him. Always remember that you have a guardian angel watching over you from above. God Bless all of you. Rest in Peace Clem. (we're going to miss your charro beans-you made the best.)

With love, Pepe, Nissy (Maribel's sister-n-law) and Vanessa Chavez

“ I have very sympathetic thoughts and feelings for Clemente's family including his wife Irma, his son Clem, his daughters Isabel, Laura(my wife), and Maribel. I know this is not an easy time for you and I hope that in time a peaceful feeling reaches you.

Love,
Ted

“ My father was a man of simple means. He never asked for much at all. The only thing he ever really asked for was TIME. He wanted his family to spend time with him and my mother. Spending time with my dad often meant doing things. Like helping to care for the garden he had in the backyard of the family home. Or, helping him move shovelfuls of gravel to the driveway. One time, I remember helping move the camper off the top of an old ford truck he had. He loved that truck! Another time, I remember my brother and sisters and I, along with my father, went out to the backyard and laid out on a blanket gazing up at the starry filled sky. Dad narrated the mysteries of the universe and tried to explain to me why shooting stars did what they did. Pressing for answers beyond what he'd given, Dad would tell me to go to sleep. Even then I questioned and sought reasons never quite satisfied with simple responses. I can still see that bright, illuminated sky of that night as if it were yesterday. But, now, I'll look to the star filled heavens and wonder no longer why shooting stars shoot across the sky. I don't need those answers anymore. I think I'll just spend TIME marveling at the majestic symphony their lights display and thank my lucky stars that I was lucky enough to sleep under the stars that night with my brother and two sisters, and, my Dad.
