

Clifford Dwain Hageman

February 23, 1939 - December 22, 2017

Dear Lord, I left my earthly body on December 22, 2017 at the age of 78. I'm happy because I was with my closest family; my wife of 50 years, Sonja, my son David Rizer, who took care of me this past year, his wife Jennifer, my daughter Tami Tock, her fiancé Chris Elliott, and two of my grandchildren Andrew and Alexis Cantu.

Please be with them and all those I leave behind; Don and Suzanne Hageman, Randy, Becky and Jacob Hanna, Steve and Norma Rizer, Andrea Rizer, Will Rizer, Tabby Rizer, Beth Rizer, Shelly Lawrence and all my great-grandchildren that I didn't get to spend enough time with.

Watch over, guard, guide and protect them as I am not able to any longer. For I am now with all those who have passed before me; my parents Clifford E. and Ruth Hageman, my sister Espie Jo Hanna and grandparents, many aunts and uncles. It will be nice to see them again.

Lord, you know I don't need much but Sonja would like for our friends and family to join together one last time to share memories and love with each other on January 13th at 2pm at the Pleasanton Church of Christ Fellowship hall.

I ask that you keep all those that travel to my memorial safe and see them home safely.

I will miss them all and will continue to love them and wait for the day we are together again.

In your name, Amen.

“ I am so very sorry to hear of Dwain's death. I just got on his face book page to wish happy birthday and saw where he has left us. Dwain is my second cousin. Hadn't seen him since high school days but we have always kept in touch over the years. We had fun on the very few occasions I visited my grandparents in Bronte. My condolences to all the family. “ Dwayne was a joy to be around and such a thoughtful loving man. If anyone needed help, Dwayne was there. He would have literally taken the shirt off his back if you needed it. He made everyone laugh, always. I found out yesterday evening that you had passed away. I printed your obituary and posted it at work. So many of us were unaware you had passed away. You were a great bus driver and an even better co-worker. Our thoughts and prayers are with Sonja and your family. If you need anything please let us know. So I will close dear friend with your favorite saying to us every evening when you left work. "I will see you all tomorrow, Lord willing and if the creek don't rise".

“ He, just like the rest of the family, was always so kind to me. He would sit around with me having random conversations and always made me feel at home. He had such a kind heart and will be missed. He is in my thoughts and prayers...as is the lovely family

“ My heart and prayers are with the Hageman and extended family. I remember being at Sonja and Dwain's wedding at our home in Helotes and then becoming close again when we all lived in Marion. Special thoughts and love go out to Sonja, Tami, David, and Steve.

“ I first met Dwain and Sonja and their family in the mid 70's. That was when Dwain had transferred to Carrizo Springs with Halliburton. The church quickly fell in love with the whole family. They are all wonderful people that serve the Lord. God has called one of his faithful home.
