

Clifford Alvin Johnson

June 30, 1953 - January 1, 2021

Clifford Alvin Johnson passed away from natural causes on January 1, 2021 at the Marbridge Foundation in Manchaca, Texas. Clifford was born on June 30, 1953 in San Antonio, Texas to Horace Woodrow Johnson and Gladys Merkel Johnson, who predeceased him. As a special needs child, in 1971, his parents made the hard decision to enroll home at Marbridge Ranch. Clifford attended Special Education Schools in the Northeast School District and he advanced to the limit of education available to him. At this time his parents believed he would have a better all-around life at Marbridge, where he would live with young men his age, work on the ranch and enjoy schooling, job training and recreation. Clifford loved his life there and was a resident for 47 years until his death. He regularly returned home to visit family and was always a joy. He loved being home with everyone, especially on his birthday and Christmas. While at Marbridge, he held a position of Janitor for a State Department Building in Austin. He enjoyed riding his bicycle around the many acres of the ranch and enjoyed watching and reading about professional wrestling. He loved music of many kinds and especially a lot of time enjoying his CD's and Television. Clifford was also predeceased by his sister, Jean Johnson Bowker, his special uncle Ervin Reiner, his grandparents and numerous aunts and uncles. He is survived by his brother, E. Clark Johnson, his sister-in-law, Margaret Ellen Johnson, two nephews, Stephen Johnson and Douglas Bowker and one niece Denise Zucco. He leaves behind a great-niece and two great nephews. He is also survived by his very devoted cousins,

James and Barbara Merkel and many cousins and friends.
