“ Cliff was not only my big brother he was someone I always looked up to as I was growing up. Even though there was a big age difference and he went into the Army shortly after I was born and stayed in Texas after he was discharged and it was a long way from San Antonio and Chicopee, MO. where I was born, we did get to share some visits over the years, not enough but the time we did get together he would always make my time with him special whether it was fishing or shooting Jack Rabbits. He would always tell me, " I love you Bud, you are the only brother I have. " and I felt the same way about him. Big brother I may not be there in person but I know you know I am there and my love for you will never die. Chris, Debbie, Laura, Gary and all the family, I love you all. I will miss your Dad big time.
" I love you BIG BROTHER "
