

Clyde J. Maples

May 3, 1931 - December 20, 2010

Clyde J Maples, Sr.

Born in San Antonio, TX on May 3, 1931

Departed on Dec. 20, 2010, and resided in Schertz, TX.

Clyde John Maples, Sr, age 79, passed away Monday, Dec. 20, 2010.

He was born in San Antonio, TX, and raised by his mother Katherine Maples.

He was married to the late Rita Jean Dubose Maples for 56 years. Clyde is survived by his children, and their spouses: Yvette Johnson, Clyde & Denise Maples, Jr, Jeffrey and Helen Maples, and David Maples. Grandchildren:

Laura & Meghan Johnson, Jessica DeMotts, James & Philippa Maples, and

Katie, Maggie, and Sam Maples. He is also survived by his brother Myron Maples, and several cousins.

Clyde attended Central Catholic HS where he exhibited outstanding athletic prowess. He began working at Kelly AFB as an apprentice aircraft mechanic around age 18. He married in August 1952. Shortly thereafter he joined the Civil Service, and moved for a short time with the family to California and

Arkansas, eventually settling in Memphis, Tennessee, where they lived for approximately 35 years. After retiring from the Civil Service, Clyde held several jobs around Memphis, before moving back to the San Antonio area with his wife. His most recent job was as a shuttle driver for Mission Chrysler

Jeep.

In his spare time Clyde was a jack of all trades; mechanic, handyman, builder, and carpenter. He enjoyed telling a joke or three. He was known for his hard work, his steadfastness, family, and his interest in sports. His favorite teams were the Cowboys, the Spurs, and the University of Texas and Tennessee. He also followed the St. Louis Cardinals.

“ *Papa,
I miss you so much already. Last time I saw you I felt like I was finally old enough to realize who you were as a person which made us so much closer. I regret that I did not get to know you more.
Even though we didn't get to see you often, it is*
